

Century

Century is a "crossbreeding" of texture and materials: the warmth of a leather finish and the purity of the lacquered glass shelves make it a real "must-have" for design addicts.

Century remains anyhow a product for AV fanatics. It combines again all the specificities that ensure the good performance of your AV devices.

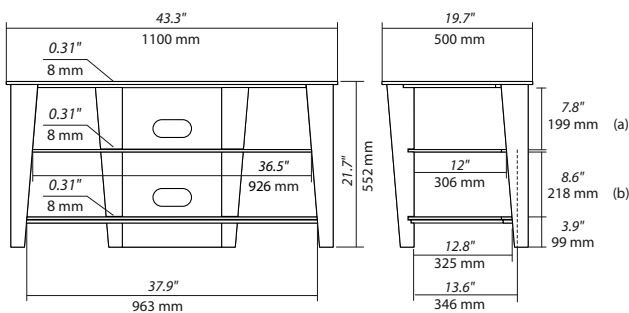

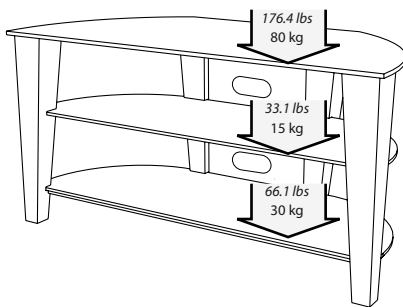

TVs and Home Theatre products feel right in its large and deep shelves: the unnoticeable back path to floor ensures a clean management of the cables.
